

Spoletto- My Italian Kitchen opens in East Orlando

Restaurant is first U.S. location

ORLANDO, Fla. —Spoletto - My Italian Kitchen is now open in East Orlando, serving up its signature pastas, flatbreads and salads.

The Spoletto menu offers several chef-crafted dishes, but the highlight of the restaurant is its interactive culinary lessons. Guests have the ability to create their personal pasta dishes, flatbreads and salads, using 30 different farm-fresh and house-prepared ingredients.

President of Spoletto USA, John Valasquez, said, "The goal at Spoletto is to give our guests the Culinary Freedom to experiment with amazing Italian Culinary. We want them to be in control of this open kitchen, working with our chefs to craft their perfect meal."

Spoletto is at 12101 University Blvd., Suite 219 in Orlando. Two additional Orlando locations are scheduled to open later this year, one at the Florida Mall and another in Winter Park.
