

Things to do in Orlando Besides Theme Parks

It's vacation time! Last year, 72 million tourists visited Orlando, Florida. While the city is known as the "theme park capital of the world", there are so many things to do in Orlando besides theme parks and I'm going to share some of my favorites.

Wyndham Orlando Resort on International Drive

But first, let's get settled in our home away from home. For me, it's the Wyndham Orlando Resort on International Drive.

You can never go wrong with a Wyndham. This one is amazing for so many reasons, including the spacious family suites. My kids LOVED the bunkbeds that came in our family suite. They even had their own TV in their little private space that was a hit.

With a great fitness center, outdoor pools, hot tub, and an amazing on-site restaurant called Gatorville, this place is a must. The lobby is a great place for drinks at the bar and a quick game (or two) of Connect Four.

And International Drive? It's one stop shopping for just about everything you could possibly want or need on vacation. Want to go beyond International Drive? The Wyndham Orlando Resort offers a shuttle to area attractions.
