

The Local in College Park now open for lunch

The Local Bar and Grill (Facebook) is now open for lunch.

The College Park watering hole, located at 3231 Edgewater Drive [GMap], will now serve lunch on the weekdays starting at 11 a.m.

The menu will feature classic pub fare with items like onion rings, club sandwiches, and a brunch breakfast plate of eggs, bacon, and hash browns.

The new lunch offering is part of a series of changes put into place by the new owner, Pat Semeraro, who took the reigns late last year, including ongoing specials and entertainment. Semeraro promises more improvements in the coming months but is tight-lipped on specifics.
