Italian restaurant on Curry Ford expands to Longwood

F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen is opening a location in Longwood next year.

The restaurant, which serves pastas and wood-fired pizzas, is expected to open in spring at 1000 W. State Road 434.

F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen's existing restaurant is at 2420 Curry Ford Road, Orlando, and opened in 2018. It also serves vegan pizzas, weekend brunch and beer and wine.

It is part of the F&D family of restaurants, which also includes Lake Mary's F&D Kitchen & Bar and F&D Cantina. The Longwood restaurant is the first of several openings planned for next year, according to a news release.

"F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen has quickly become a classic name in Central Florida's pizza and Italian food scene because we deliver our passion in every single dish we serve," Charly Robinson, the owner and founder of the F&D family of restaurants, said in a news release.
