

The Washington Post

DRIVE FLORIDA

After a year spent at home daydreaming of a vacation, most of us are eager to travel again — and looking for a getaway that doesn't require a ton of planning or hassle.

With 26 officially designated Florida Scenic Highways guiding the way, a Florida road trip is the perfect stress-free vacation. Simply load up the car, grab the kids, and cruise out to the many adventures the Sunshine State has to offer.

From outdoor sports to al fresco dining, Florida has a fun activity for everyone in your family. Use the destinations below to build your custom road trip itinerary. When you're done planning, click to download a portable guide that you can bring on your Florida adventure.

Complete an outdoor obstacle course at Orlando Tree Trek Adventure Park Zip Line

Shake off your road trip legs and navigate through 97 aerial challenges, including a 425-foot zip line, in this adrenaline-spiking outdoor obstacle park. Two separate kids' courses offer 21 aerial challenges.

To view the article live, click here.