

ICON Park gets into Halloween spirit with free Wheel rides for costumed youngsters, lightshow

ORLANDO, Fla. — ICON Park has announced some spooky good deals and events all month long to celebrate Halloween.

All month long, ICON Park is offering complimentary tickets to The Wheel for children 12 and under who are dressed up in costumes. Family members riding along can receive 50% off their tickets to The Wheel, up to four tickets.

To help set the scene on the 400-foot observation wheel, a Halloween-inspired playlist will play inside the private capsules.

A glowing light show will also take place on the ICON Park Lawn each night with a show beginning at 8 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and shows at 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

The Wheel's 64,000 LED lights will also dance to a spooky soundtrack during a 10-minute production.

To see the full article, click here.